

Summon the Hordes

Protector

Take the train, take the car, or the bike
A band's in town that I know that you like
See the posters, see the pentagram
It comes at you like a battering ram
Into the hall, to the front row
Feel the excitement in you grow
Bang your head and make the sign
Now you're there, at the front line

(Chorus)

Summon the Hordes - Protector is in town
Summon the Hordes - For a Thrash Metal meltdown

Come to the venue, see the show
Walk through the rain and through the snow
You are ready to give it all
To go crazy and have a ball
You are the reason we are on stage
Welcome to our Metal age
People say that you don't fit in
We say: "Thrash will always win!"

(Repeat chorus)

Thrash Metal tornado
Axe attack torpedo
Basslines right between the eyes
Thrash Metal paradise

Once you're in it's grip
You'll never be free from the trip
Once you're in it's power
It will be your personal ivory tower

[Solo]

(Repeat chorus)

(Repeat foregoing verse)

Summon the Hordes - Protector is in town
Summon the Hordes - For a Thrash Metal meltdown
Summon the Hordes - For pleasure and for pain
Summon the Hordes - Again and again
