

Unity, Anthems and Pandemonium

Protector

Crowds are invading the countryside
Everybody is ready for the ride
Cheers and chants fill the air
Come and join the hordes if you dare

Unity, Anthems, and Pandemonium

Banners are raised in the camps
Everyone's partying on like a champ
Through the day, and through the night
The flame of Metal is burning bright

Living the moment to the full
Full of energy like a raging bull
There's no tomorrow, only today
We're here to savour, here to stay

Nothing can stop our partisan
Standing as one like a barbican
Storms and rain, we laugh at you
We're party animals in a Metal zoo

(Repeat first verse)

Unity, Anthems, and Pandemonium

(Repeat second verse)

(Repeat third verse x 2)

We're here to stay!
