Protector

Xenophobia (x 4)

Eyes filled with hatred and fire
A murderous and perverted desire
Fists clenched until the knuckles get white
Burning cross, white fire

The blood is boiling, the heart is pounding
Hostile voices that are harsh-sounding
The soul is torn apart by hate and distrust
Anger, disgust

Insanity! Madness!

Insane aggression is filling the air
So unjust and unfair
It has existed since the dawn of time
It's antisocial and vile

It's always ending with death and tears
Orphans and fears
Who knows if it ever can be stopped
We'll see and hope

Anger, disgust

Lunacy! Frenzy!
