

Dreamy Eyes

Protoje

There's no perfect situation in life but, girl, we are such good friends

Really there's no surprise how we deal with problems

I like the way you caress me with your smile and dreamy eyes

Now the song that keeps on playing when I sing in melody

Love is all I see when you be that close to me

True love is all I feel, now what else can anyone need?

And I am so completely loved, warm like the summer breeze

Love that I feel for you is real

Stronger than steel, in you I believe

Beautiful woman, now I just can't say why on Earth

I have been so blessed

Something in your style is better than all the rest

Tell me your fears and I'll make them alright, dreamy eyes

'Cause the love that you give is appreciated and satisfying

Love is all I see when you be that close to me

True love is all I feel, now what else can anyone need?

Now I am so completely loved, warm like the summer breeze

Love that I feel for you is real

Stronger than steel, in you I believe

Ayy, when you pull up on me, vibes just lif' up

Like a plant weh get water weh soak inna dirt

How yuh mean if it hurt when yuh doh come around?

I've been searching this Earth, nothing else that I found

Can compare to yuh, no, cyaan come near to yuh, please

Come here, mek mi play inna yuh hair, drop asleep

When yuh wake, yuh can drop it pon mi pon repeat

Wah yuh do mek it sweet suh now

Love is all I see when you be that close to me

True love is all I feel, now what else can anyone need?

And I am so completely loved, warm like the summer breeze

Love that I feel for you is real

Stronger than steel, in you I believe

Now love is all I see when you be that close to me

True love is all I feel, now what else can anyone need?

And I am so completely loved, warm like the summer breeze

Love that I feel for you, it is so real, it is so very real

Now it is so real and it is so very real

Now love is all I

I am so completely loved
