

In Bloom

Protoje

Open up your eyes and fight for your rights
Or you will die
'Cause I'm gonna fight for you day and night
But it's alright, that's right baby

Now where do you run to, run to
Is all of this just fun for you
Where are you hiding, hiding
Don't you see me fighting for you

Now where do you run to, run to
Is all of this just fun for you
Where are you hiding, hiding
Don't you see me fighting for you

Don't you see me fighting with all my might?
Don't you see me needing all your time?
Don't you see I'm lost inside your eyes?
Don't you see me loving you?

Ey
Never find a better place to be than wrapped up in your time
Can't seem to go without the thought of being all up in your life
Hold me down, don't ever let me leave, it's part of your design

So where do you run to, run to
Is all of this just fun for you
And where are you hiding, hiding
Don't you see me fighting for you
Where do you run to, run to
