

For Tomorrow

Protomartyr

Plan for tomorrow
Get up to go to sleep
Too lazy for work, too nervous to steal

I don't want you to know
I don't want you to know

Saw you outside of The Special Way
With a bottle of pleasure in your hand
Saw me lost on my old street
Looking for a room to live
In the fair city

Plan for tomorrow
Consider the ant
Think on her ways
Spray her down with Raid
Now consider the cost
Think about loss
Tiredness kills much more than they let on

I don't want you to know
I don't want you to know

Saw you outside of the gallery
With a tragic notion in your head
Saw me down in a rented room
Looking for the will to live
In this fair city

I don't want you to know
I don't want you to know

For tomorrow
For tomorrow
For tomorrow
For tomorrow
