Maidenhead

Protomartyr

Shade goes up
Shade goes down
One of my dead moods

Shade goes up
Shade goes down
One of my dead moods

It's just a clack in the brain, yeah
A clack in the brain, yeah

Don't feel nothing for anyone
Don't feel no love for anything
Don't feel nothing for anyone
Don't feel no love for anything

It's just a clack in the brain, yeah
A clack in the brain, yeah
It's just a clack in the brain, yeah

Maidenhead, here I come
I have arrived

Shade goes up
Shade goes down
One of my dead moods
