

Another Boy

Provoker

This is something I won't forget
Stuck on all those things you said
It's a shame you had to lie
Just to not get under my skin

Just another boy
Just another boy

Something I will grow to regret
Swearing on my own death bed
I'm ashamed that hurt my pride
Not your problem
And now I'm all
Self-absorbed and
Out my mind
Unresolving

Guess I'm just another boy
(Just another boy)

I didn't ask for any help
But then you came along and
I took the hand that led me there
Should've thought about you then
When you seen, saw you cry
And it threw my whole life
I bit the hand that led me there
It's a shame that I am

Just another boy
Just another boy
Just another boy
Just another boy
