

Mausoleum

Provoker

It wasn't my time, I wasn't supposed to go
I'm not supposed to be here

You may remember
It's amusing every time
My confession
Left you feeling kinda
Aromantic
Opposite of what I said
In my message
In my message

Our love is bound by a ring of eternity
Remember all those times you said to me (I love you)
From what I can see
I'm just a fool floating through your memory

Mausoleum
I'm coming back, I did bad again
Mausoleum
I'm running back, won't do that again

It wasn't my time, I wasn't supposed to go
I'm not supposed to be here

You don't remember
I get further in your mind
Not to mention
You found a new lover again
Never matter
I won't keep it to myself
Read the message
Read the message

I saw you leave our old apartment
He helped you pack our things and moved them in (I'm with you)
Without noticing
I'm in the room as you fuse with another skin

Mausoleum
I'm coming back, I did bad again
Mausoleum
I'm running back, won't do that again

I saw you drive home in the pouring rain
A single tear for me fell from your face (I miss you)

Mausoleum
I'm coming back, I did bad again (I miss you)
Mausoleum
I'm running back, won't do that again
