

Singing Gun

Provoker

See this gun
I made it sing
Oh wuh oh oh
Oh wuh oh oh
Setting sun
Dig up the land
Oh wuh oh oh

The man she loved
Is now dead and gone

Now every time we lock eyes
Your face stays in her mind
She was mine but I can't lie
It's you she wanted
In return I took your life
You were all we had left
Now everytime I spend the night
It's you on the other side

Stolen skin
Your leather coat
Oh wuh oh oh
Oh wuh oh oh
Bet and won
My losing hand
Oh wuh oh oh

The man she loved
Is still living on

Cause every time we lock eyes
Your face stays in her mind
She was mine but I can't lie
It's you she wanted
In return I took your life
You were all we had left
Now every time I spend the night
It's you on the other side

My hands stained with inner red
My heads mental suffering
Pay in ways for what I did
Life of poison and regret
