

Just Like Nothing

Prozak

Even though the world's around me
I feel lonely
Like I'm the only one
Even though the world has found me
It can drown me
It feels just like nothing

Maybe there's a reason I feel I'm the only one
I walk amongst 7 billion understood by none
A lost soul walking down the cross-roads
Searching for some sanctuary, some peace of mind just to grab hold
Man overboard in the darkest sea of reality
Desperately trying to keep himself from sinking and he's frantically panicin g and theres no sign of land
Can he be the man that can handle this damage and get back up on his feet ag ain
Cause somewhere deep inside his abdomen he feels the burn and purpose to def eat these inner demons that seem to submerge him
That always seem to surface and cause a diversion, that sures him to crash and burn on his course to destiny's purpose

Even though the world's around me
I feel lonely
Like I'm the only one
Even though the world has found me
It can drown me
It feels just like nothing

Maybe it's too late now I see the sky is faded
No turning back no second chance and thats an understatement
My only friend is my reflection and he's dissipatin'
Into these endless days of disarray I'm contemplatin'
Where did I go wrong, try to hold on [?] be strong
Hard to feel that home when theres no place for me to belong
I guess it's back to packin down these back roads
With a black hole inside my chest that used to hold a soul

Maybe when it's all done I can finally realize
Why I felt alone through this journey of my life
And everything will finally make sense to me one day
But until then I wish I could make this go away

Even though the world's around me
I feel lonely
Like I'm the only one
Even though the world has found me
It can drown me
It feels just like nothing

(Ohhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhh)
(Ohhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhh)

Even though the world's around me
I feel lonely
Like I'm the only one
Even though the world has found me
It can drown me

It feels just like nothing

(Ohhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhh)

(Ohhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhhhhhh, Ohhhhhh)
