

HEAVEN

PRYVT

Forget about what we said, the past is all gone all a waste
Leave it behind, yesterday
The flowers will bloom till it fades away

Stuck with your melodies its like they're making fun of me
Giving me hope but I'm lost in this dream
I see you through, so perfect and true
My feelings decay when I know its not you

Heaven is where you want me to be
They're seeking the finer things but for me
All I want is you to be, face to face smiling back (Cause I know at last)

Facing unknown, colorful worlds
Familiar places I'll tell you all about it
So please don't go far, cause wherever you are
My heaven or hell opens up, cause you are my only love
