I'm speaking the truth
I told you my all
It may seem like I wasn't at all
□□□□ □□ □□□
□ □□□ (□ □□□□)
(Ireonnado naega sileundae
Neon eotteoket (neon eotteokenni))
You've told me your all
Showing me love
I know that you've tried, with all that you are
Wish this was a lie, but knowing it's not, it's hurting me dear

The way that you touched
The way that it felt
I'll never forget the words that you left
The way that you cared
The ways that you helped
I'll never find someone like you ever again
'Cause nothing compares to the way that you smile
And knowing that I'll never get to see it again (Oh-woah, oh)
