

WON'T YOU

PRYVT

Won't you, come again for the day
When the rain is falling down we'll run around
All for you, I'd fight again
Found a place to calm my soul, that I can call home

I trust you with me, for keeping me sane
To not waste my day, just waiting here alone for another
So hold onto me, for when I'm into deep
I need you more than ever
(Forever, with you)

Swore I'd never love again, was it too much that was said?
Maybe I was going too fast, needed you to hold me back
Wanted more to fill my life, thought that you would understand
Why I've been so lonely, why I can't fall asleep

Let me go, out of the ordinary
Oh Ive been in misery, its all make believe by you
Out of luck, and my feelings out of sight
Now I can't seem to care

Calling me back with one more touch
Never knew how we became one
Feeling like I'm always lost, trying to live but at what cost
Maybe its time for me to leave, so ill say my goodbyes and set you fr ee
Forget all of me

Where did you go? Can you come back to me, if I believe
Can you save my soul? Stay next to me

Swore I'd never love again, was it too much that was said?
Maybe I was going too fast, needed you to hold me back
Wanted more to fill my life, thought that you would understand
Why I've been so lonely, why I can't fall asleep

Let me go, out of the ordinary
Oh Ive been in misery, its all make believe by you
Out of luck, and my feelings out of sight
Now I can't seem to care

Calling me back with one more touch
Never knew how we became one
Feeling like I'm always lost, trying to live but at what cost
Maybe its time for me to leave, so ill say my goodbyes and set you fr
