

your wedding

PRYVT

Goodbye, we had a blast
What more could I ask of you now
Knowing this is the end
You made who I am
Beginning till now it was, just you
Yes, you were the one, that showed me the light
That showed me there's more to in life
Than what was my past
You gave me your all
For that I'm so grateful of you, of you

And knowing that this is the end
Can I just go 'bout here saying?
The thought of you with someone else
It kills me but it's all and well
As long as you're happy without
As long as you're smiling without, me

How are you?
Have you been alright? (Have you been alright?)
Our time has gone by, now you're by his side
I know that it's all that you are (I know that it's all that yo u are)
'Cause, darling, you're all that I know ('Cause, darling, you'r e all that I know)
So, I'm letting go (Ooh-woah)

And knowing that this is the end
Can I just go 'bout here saying? (Oh, no)
The thought of you with someone else
It kills me but it's all and well
As long as you're happy without
As long as you're smiling without, me
