Bone Marrow

Psapp

Climb aboard the broken mule
Climb aboard today
Oh anybody will tell you that this is not the way

Leave the door ajar again
To see the glowing dunes
Through we are light and aimless
We pale in the gloom

Roll up
Roll over again
Roll up
Roll over again

The bone needs the blood
The blood needs the bone
Without a choice at all
Oh though I love to blame you
We both made the rules

Wend our way across the bay
To watch the others fight
Oh though we never chose it
We're bound together tight

Roll up
Roll over again
Roll up
Roll over again
