Pieces

Psapp

I really wanna, I really wanna
I really want to know

I really wanna, I really wanna
I really want to know

I really wanna, I really wanna
I really want to know

I really wanna, I really wanna
I really want to know

I want to have what you have
I want to know what you know
I want to have all your problems, all your problems

I want to do as you do
Oh, I love being you
And you can take all my pieces, all my pieces

You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces
You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces

I'm gonna beg for your blood
I'm gonna take all the love
And you can have all the pieces, all my pieces

When we're dead and we're gone
And there is no more sun
There will still be our pieces, be our pieces

You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces
You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces

I follow the light
Stepping into the [?]
But we're sure we'll be forgiven, be forgiven

Oh, I give all I've got
And then I give even more
Oh, I love being human, being human

You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces
You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces

You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces
You're gonna take all my pieces, all my pieces
