

Assassin

Psyche

Now I lie down on shattered glass
Feel the dagger against my skin
Calling for the devil's kiss
Know you'll come in for the kill

Whisper in the night
My assassin
Our last kiss goodbye
The assassin

Desire hiding behind the mask
A savage tongue pressed on burning lips
This fire leaving a carnal scent
Silent as a final breath

Whisper in the night
My assassin
Our last kiss goodbye
The assassin

Whisper in the night
My assassin
Our last kiss goodbye
The assassin

Silence is a final breath
Silence is a final breath
Silence is a final breath

Silence is a final breath
Silence is a final breath
Silence is a final breath

Surrender in the night
Somewhere far away
A fire leaves a carnal scent

The assassin
The assassin

Hold you in his arms
And take you far away
Hold you in his arms
And take you far away

The assassin
