

Broken Heart

Psyche

I'd ask the rain
To wash away my tears
And help my life
To erase this fear
Always too much
Love couldbe more than this
Consumed by the fire
In our first kiss

Who will repair this broken heart?
Who can repair this broken heart?

Danger has no boundaries
No holds barred
And when I walk through this crowd
I know that I'll be scarred
Now you know what lies
In the promises you've made
I guess I've pushed too far
You know I've always been afraid

Who will repair this broken heart?
Who can repair this broken heart?
