

If You Believe

Psyche

In the moonlight, by the sea
Thought I was drowning
Now I believe
That sometimes love
It escapes and dies

I just remember
That look in your eyes

If you believe in me
I will try
If you believe in me
That's all I need to stay alive

When the evening
It makes you sad
I'll be the healing you never had

Expectations
They may pass you by
But when you need me
I'm at your side
