

In My Solitude

Psyche

Now the night seems cold
And I know there's something wrong
I'm feeling uncertain again
Where once I felt so calm
And I can't understand this violence

Screaming in my head
Like walking through a minefield with you

This cage of solitude
How could you ever lock me in?
This cage of solitude
Don't you ever lock me in
Love doesn't have to be so cruel
It was never my decision to feel this way
