

Land Of Broken Promises

Psyche

Walking down the street alone
Trying to find my way to you
No one here on this lonely night again
See the skies turn by like the tears in your eyes
See the light come down and it's shining bright

This is the land of broken promises
Come and take my hand
I'll show you the way
This is the land of broken promises
Where dreams are made to be forgotten again

You danced the night alone I know
Seemed to never stop but you go on
Look in to your eyes at night
Don't you know the river flows
And shines so bright
When you're standing next to me

Take my hand
Out tonight
Slow me down
You know the way
