

Peep Show

Psyche

I no longer understand what I see
My skin burns from wanting
I never knew people could do those things
In the name of desire?
In the name of lust?
You've seen the act so many times
But somehow it's always changing
New faces
New games
New pleasures
It all seems so unreal

When you know it's only skin
As far as the eye can see

Forbidden excitement everlasting
In the peepshow
