Renegades

Psyche

Taste the fear from the years before
This could be dying
Nailed to the floor

Waiting round the corner of another night
Bound and sacred hidden in the wall

Renegade on the streets of tomorrow
It's not too late
I know somehow we'll find our escape
Renegade on the streets of tomorrow
It's not our fate
I know somehow we'll find our escape

Pushed me again
Denied access
A voice is calling from within

Breaking down the speakers as you try to escape
I'm hypnotized by another face

Renegade on the streets of tomorrow
It's not too late
I know somehow we'll find our escape
Renegade on the streets of tomorrow
It's not our fate
I know somehow we'll find our escape
