

Sorrow

Psyche

When you find a love
And you want him to stay
You've given everything
Then you turn around
And you know it's too late
Now he's gone away

That's when my sorrow remains
My sorrow remains
I don't know why I feel this way
I don't know why I feel this way

How could you know?
If it would be right
Was I the one to blame?
Now it's tearing at your heart
Turned around and walked away
Tried to make him stay

Was I the one to blame?
Was I the one to blame?
