

Taking Chances

Psyche

You were always leading the way
You were always talking of time

I can't see the need
To wait for my dreams
If you don't take the chances
There is nothing to gain
You're always claiming
That there's so much demand
I've made my choice
And on my ground I'm going to stand

You know I must learn for myself
You know another day is too late..
