

The Influence

Psyche

Time bends down on it's knees
Waiting like this forever
Who's going to be the next victim?
I'm living without duress

Forever in silence
Forever in silence

If I could
But the clock is broken now

I'm not going down

Everything has it's price
But I don't have to pay it

Love
I don't want to pay it

No
I'm not going down
Under the influence
