

Trespass

Psyche

I don't know if I can explain
But I can no longer
Look into your eyes
And I just don't understand
How this happened at all
I never wanted this
To happen
There's a black cat on my trail
All my plans are bound to fail
And the dreams I thought we shared
Have been to no avail
