

...And The Addled Abstraction Of Being

Psychedelic Porn Crumpets

How do you know that you're alive a three dimensional intimate life
My mind implies that I exist although I can't rely on his advice
I want to watch the Earth evolve with time an object I control
And I can take my head off

Is it any wonder
Is it any wonder
That I have no idea
Is it any wonder
Is it any wonder
That I have no idea

Day In, day out I think about the other worlds irrelevant to mine
How many other names they've had in languages we can't identify
I will go mad before I have an answer that relates to all
When there's so much to explore

Is it any wonder
Is it any wonder
That I have no idea
Is it any wonder
Is it any wonder
That I have no idea

And the addled abstractions of being
And the addled abstractions of being
And the addled abstractions of being
And the addled abstractions of being
