Psychedelic Porn Crumpets

I'm sorry I almost, started taking things too serious
I got so caught up in, a thinking binge
And let life take over

Time's been fluttering by and I can't keep track of it
Every moment decides how my intelligence rests
I've been trying to be something different
Away from the automatic existences

Existences
Existences
