

Illusions Of Grandeur

Psychedelic Porn Crumpets

Round and round, you're out, you're down
The AGIs have come
Local man writes in the paper
There you were Here we are
With illusions of grandeur

Smile for your country
Smile and advance

iPhone, transplant
Love
Heatwave, rain dance
Flood

A conventional opinion
To see death evade us all
If you were infinite, you'd still want more

In the deepest part of the ocean row
Rise up to the robots
Rise up to the wires
Spare some change for the artificial unintelligence
