

Pi

Psychedelic Porn Crumpets

Seamless colours pour into the room
They let me know I'm in a costume
Tailored by unhindered time
An arrow dimensionally confined
But I'm an infinite clause
That proves my head full
The future's alright while the bottle seems my nature
If quotes are as timeless as life ever was

Because I am one and only one of me exists
99 percent sure that I belong
But there's a slither of doubt
Concerning if I'm here at all
Or accumulating days that I'll no longer hold
And if it ever went out
Would I be back in another form?
Or something unimaginable?
I'm confused about the reasons why I happen to be
A part, a whole, a half, a capsule for my one energy
As pi goes on infinitely undying

Nowhere to fall
Infinitely undying
Nowhere to fall
Infinitely undying
Nowhere to fall
Infinitely undying
Nowhere to fall

Because I am one and only one of me exists
99 percent sure that I belong
But there's a slither of doubt
Concerning if I'm here at all
Or accumulating days that I'll no longer hold
And if it ever went out
Would I be back in another form?
Or something unimaginable?
I'm confused about the reasons why I happen to be
A part, a whole, a half, a capsule for my one energy
As pi goes on infinitely
