

Generation's Sin

Psychopunch

Just bring it in and I will try
To drag it down and watch it die
Can't really shake this cosmic blues
It's full of shit it's born to loose

Nowhere to hide nowhere to go
I'd tell you for free but I just don't know

You want it all so bad - It's gonna drive you f*cking mad
And when the pain of life kicks in another generation's sin

It's up to you baby can't you see
Your way of life is killing me
Can't move ahead so baby I pretend
That I'll love you true 'til the bitter end

There's nowhere to hide nowhere to go
I'd tell you for free but I just don't know

I'm pretty close to insanity
So don't be fooled by the love that I give
