

Raise Your Hands

Psychopunch

24 minutes till the show begins
Don't want to go but can't stay in Same old band you seen before
Still standing in the crowd screaming more more more

Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but she couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go - No she didn't want to go

What do you say - the floor's packed tight
The beer is flat but tastes alright

Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but she couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go - No she didn't want to go

Raise raise all your hands
Show me that you can
Now raise raise all your hands
Just do it where you stand

Lights go out - shake your ass
Just to get a backstage pass
Looking for a lover in the backstage zone
Wants someone who's not unknown

Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but she couldn't say no
Didn't want to go but couldn't say no
Didn't want to go - No she didn't want to go

Raise raise all your hands
Show me that you can
Now raise raise all your hands
Just do it where you stand

Raise raise all your hands
Show me that you can
Now raise raise all your hands
Just do it where you stand

Raise raise all your hands
Raise raise all your hands
Now raise raise all your hands
