

Two Empty Hands

Psychopunch

One holy thought and I can't breath
A little dose of poison that's exactly what I need
I count the days ? the nights are so long I'm a million miles away and the road goes on and on I watch it slowly passing by A few hundred pills might do the trick to feel alive
Some pray for mercy ? I don't pray at all Don't even think I care ? I wait until it falls ? until it falls
Like a moon without the stars - (now I know it is for real)
Can you tell me who they are ? (and I show ém how it feels)
We're all suckers on a faraway stand
Down here for nothing ? two empty hands
Trapped in the corner ? can't you see
One scary thought ? it is I and a thousand me How about some space ? leave me alone
They stole my heart away & now they want my bones ?
want my bones
Like a moon without the stars - (now I know it is for real)
feels)
We're all suckers on a faraway stand
Down here for nothing ? two empty hands
real)
feels)
We're all suckers on a faraway stand
Down here for nothing ? two empty hands
