

Devils and Angels

Psychotic Waltz

The passage opens and I slip in
Into your conscience under your skin
Through the doorway my shadow spills
Straight to your senses to prey upon your will

Devils and Angels
Devils and Angels
We will rise

You have manifested a living form
Of all your secrets, all your buried bones
We are forsaken, sentenced to descend
But with your wicked wishes we can rise again

Devils and Angels
Devils and Angels
We will rise

Past the fringe of your perception (we are waiting)
Just beyond your reach (how long we've been waiting)

We are alive and we will soon arise
We have survived falling from so high

Devils and Angels
Devils and Angels
We will rise

Now the world has gone to sleep
Slowly spinning 'round
Angels taking flight
As the black wings fill the sky
While the serpents serenade
"Rise"
