Exitus

Psycroptic

Burning down from the light
Night sky shadows my name
Caught in this dream
A reflection of my reality

The wisdom to seek
Yet still stuck in this cage
Fortunes weary from this night

Forever lost against time
No more now released from this veil
As the mind slips away
Can't stop it now, this earthly decay

Constant flow from the mind
Beneath this forest treading your last
Terminally so it seems
The light now dim, processions begin

Step forth now, your time has begun
Transition away from the sun
What's the next step?
The journey begins
Caught between these two worlds
The final fragments now lost
A silence of the soul
Timeless like a dream

Step forth now, your time has begun
Transition away from the sun
What's the next step
The journey begins
Caught between these two worlds
The final fragments now lost
A silence of the soul
Timeless like a dream
