Harmony
Blending so perfectly
We're made for each other
It's destiny, oh
I took your hand
Promised to be your only man
It was so easy to do
I thank God that I found you-oooh, ooh-oooh

No problems to solve
Whatever it is, we'll get through it all
God don't make mistakes
He wouldn't take us this far to separate

When I gave my heart to you (gave my heart to you)
I knew you were forever (that it meant forever)
Today I take these vows (I'll take these vows) and that's on everything (on everything)
Whatever you want, girl, I'll give you anything (I will give you everything, yeah)
No stars (no stars), no moon (and no moon)
Wouldn't be enough for you (what would be enough for you, baby?)
'Cause you're worth so much more (you're worth so much more)
You're my forevermore (forevermore), you're my forevermore

Just breathe
So I can breathe with you
I know that you're nervous
But today is more than perfect
Look at you
You're like a dream come true
And it's only getting started
Girl, I'll be loving you down regardless, yeah

Girl, you know that you belong in one of them magazines
Showing off your dress
Girl, I'm so impressed
I know that I've done the right thing
Look at the way you're showing off that ring
Remember when they told us that it wouldn't work
We brushed off our shirts
And we put in work
We knew that it wouldn't be easy
Now your love's the only food that feeds me

When I gave my heart to you
I knew you were forever (it meant forever)
Today I take these vows and that's on everything (on everything)
Whatever you want, girl, I'll give you anything (oh...)
No stars (no stars), no moon (no moon)
Wouldn't be enough for you (it's just not enough for you)
'Cause you're worth so much more (so much more)
You're my forevermore (forevermore), you're my forevermore (oh...)

Forever, and ever
We'll always be together
Forever, and always

Ain't nobody taking your place

Now here we are
Standing side by side
And all that's on my mind
Is I can't wait to get you out that dress tonight

When I gave my heart to you (gave my heart to you)
I knew you were forever (it's forever)
Today I take these vows (these vows) and that's on everything (on everything)
Whatever you want, girl, I'll give you anything
No stars (no stars), no moon (no moon)
Wouldn't be enough for you (couldn't be enough for you)
'Cause you're worth so much more (you're worth everything, you mean so much to me)
You're my forevermore (forevermore), you're my forevermore (whoa...)

When I gave my heart to you
I knew you were forever (it means, this means forever)
Today I take these vows (take my vows seriously) and that's on everything (oh, yes I will)
Whatever you want, girl, I'll give you anything (oh, yes I will)
No stars (no stars), no moon (no moon)
Wouldn't be enough for you (it's just not enough for you)
'Cause you're worth so much more (so much more)
You're my forevermore (so much more), you're my forevermore (yeah...)
