One Drop

Public Image Ltd.

I am John and I was born in London
I am no vulture, this is my culture

The laws of nature, we are lawless and free
We come from chaos, you cannot change us
Cannot explain us and that's what makes us
We are the ageless, we are teenagers
We are the focused, of all the hopeless
We are the last traps, we are the last times

One drop in all of this ocean
Not gotta be causing commotion
One drop not follow the motion
Not drop no proper emotion
One drop in all of this ocean
Get droppa, follow the motion
Get droppa, drop of emotion
Not gotta be causing commotion

One drop

We all done down
The laws of nature, we are lawless and free
We come from chaos, you cannot change us
Cannot explain us and that's what makes us
We are the ageless, we are teenagers
We are the focused, of all the hopeless
We are the last traps, we are the last times

One drop in all of this ocean
Not gotta be causing commotion
One drop not follow the motion
Not drop no proper emotion
One drop in all of this ocean
Get droppa, follow the motion
Get droppa, drop of emotion
Not gotta causing commotion

We come from chaos, you cannot change us
Cannot explain us and that's what makes us
We are the ageless, we are teenagers
We are the focus, of all the hopeless

Born in the London, out of London
Born in the London
But we really are born everywhere
One drop in all of this ocean
Not gotta be causing commotion
One drop not follow the motion
Not drop no proper emotion
One drop in all of this ocean
Get droppa, follow the motion
Get droppa, drop of emotion
Not gotta be causing commotion

We come from chaos, you cannot change us
Cannot explain us and that's what makes us

We are the ageless, we are teenagers
We are the focused, of all the hopeless
