

Back Against The Wall

Puddle of Mudd

There you are

Come on
Give me some
Give me some

You don't mind, you don't mind the secrets
Got your back, back against the wall
You don't mind, you don't mind the regrets
And you're gonna go off the wall, yeah

I remember when I met you at the playground
Nobody could stop us, and nobody could put us down
Then you moved away because the military
I miss you forever, baby, I hope you know I love you

My mom and daddy chopped me up inside the heli
Playing hide and seek somewhere out in the desert, baby
Hoping you will come, you will come back someday
'Cause I will put a little smile on your face, baby

And I really hope that, that comes true
Yeah, because I miss you
I really hope that, that comes through
Yeah, I freaking love you

You don't mind, you don't mind the secrets
Got your back, back against the wall
You don't mind, you don't mind the regrets
And you're gonna go off the wall, yeah

Now you're back inside, and everything is perfect
They try to stop us, baby, that just wasn't working, yeah
Now all that's left to do is ride off in the sunset
We can sail away, guns a-blazing, hit the "Reset"

And I really hope that, that comes true
Yeah, because I miss you
I really hope that, that comes through
Yeah, I freaking love you

You don't mind, you don't mind the secrets
Got your back, back against the wall
You don't mind, you don't mind the regrets
And you're gonna go off the wall, yeah

And I really hope that, that comes true
Yeah, because I miss you
I really hope that, that comes through
Yeah, I freaking love you

Freaking love you

You're my secret
Got your back, back against the wall
You don't mind, you don't mind the regrets
And you're gonna go off the wall, yeah

You don't mind, you don't mind the secrets
Got your back, back against the wall
You don't mind, you don't mind the regrets
Come on
And you're gonna go off the wall, yeah

Off the wall, yeah
Off the wall, yeah
Off the wall, yeah
Off the wall, yeah
Off the wall, yeah
