

Candy

Puddle of Mudd

Candy, Candy can you sing for all the boys
Everybody wants to hear your lovely voice
Don't be shy
Maybe if you cry
You'll sing a little better tonight

Candy, Candy can you spread your wings and fly
Pink clouds above they wanna kiss the sky
No need to be shy
Maybe if you fly
You'll make it through the gates tonight

What have you done?
Where have you gone?
Nobody's right or wrong, everybody makes mistakes
We all got a price to pay
