Complication

Puddle of Mudd

It's such a joke, you're the spoken lies
So that you can torture me some more, play with my mind
It's in my face and you know, that I just can't deny
That you're the one, but you never tell me anything
You just painted different colors, baby

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who is changing
I'm tired of being the one who is chasing

Somebody's gonna tell me where to go
Somebody's gonna tell me where to take it down real slow
'Cause I'm losing all control and I don't know what to do
Everybody's through with me, I'm through with you
I can't believe I believed in me and

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who is changing
I'm tired of being the fool that's chasing

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who is changing
But I'm tired of being the one who is chasing

She paints the sky
A child forever
She paints my eyes
A child forever
It's all on you

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who's changing
I'm tired of being the fool that's chasing

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who's changing
But I'm tired of being the one who is chasing

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who's changing
I'm tired of being the one that's chasing

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who's changing
But I'm tired of being the one who is chasing

What's the situation?
What's the complication?
You're the one who's changing
I'm tired of being the fool that's chasing you
