

Jump The Rails

Puffball

I took life to it's limit then I was put behind bars.
Placed in a cage for selling guns and stealing cars.
Still I am grateful for the things they didn't know.
Like the hell I raised when down in Mexico.

Blood for blood, got to stay on their tails, cuz only one preva ils.

Speeding the ways, chewing my nails.
No way out, jump the rails.
Far from tales, forget about bails.

Used my one single phone call to call Vinne the Snail.
I said "Gimme protection, they've put me in jail".
My ass was the target for the freaks in the pen.
I could have handled 1, in here I faced like 10.

Blood for blood, got to stay on their tails, cuz only one preva ils.

Speeding the ways, chewing my nails.
No way out, jump the rails.
Far from tales, forget about bails.
