

Friends

Pulley

My thoughts they keep wandering and it's all been left behind
We're taking turns at where it started from "long fallen wide"
And that door that barely opens up and there's no sound getting through
And lonely as that loneliness can be
Still one thing I can do

Try to be there with you when I can
You run and hide, find a reason to be home and then
Go run and hide
I've walked for miles by myself and you still
Run and hide again

Believe me when I've said to you that it makes me feel at ease
To know you're there to count on you
When it's all that we need
And when a hole breaks through the lines
I'll be here at your defense
I hear a faint yet quiet thanks again
Still one thing I can do

Try to be there with you when I can
You run and hide, find a reason to be home and then
Go run and hide
I've walked for miles by myself and you still
Run and hide again

To all my friends I want and need and here we are again
And I pretend to have it all
Where we begin and how it started
And everything I've wanted
To all my friends, the ones who have seen it all
That I've needed

And I want it to feel like it's something for real
I've always been the faithful one

It's my soul searching long
Fingers crossed and beyond
It's good to be the faithful one that you've needed
