

Acceptance (phase I)

Pulse Ultra

Won't fight for a cause that's been lost
When we gave up our nature denial
And too many faces are glowing with pride and assurance
But it's their loss

Don't you see the skyscrapers?
They're too big to bring down

Awareness of our conditioning is slowly seeping, leaking
The cracks that we've made
In the temple of want do seem useless
But it's their loss

Don't you see the skyscrapers?
They're too big to bring down
Step away, the mind rapers
They will drown in their greed, stop the want

Don't you see the skyscrapers?
They're too big to bring down
Step away, the mind rapers
They will drown in their greed

Stop the want, don't let it fuck with you
Stop the want, don't let it fuck with you
