

I never was sorry
and I'll never be free
on the day that our worries for always will be

I ripped down the curtains
it's time to face up
all believes and my worries
I will never give up

My heart beat is stronger
and I see in your eyes
I never should worry
You tell my no lies

[Yeeeeaaaaaaaaahhh!]

I ripped down the curtains
it's time to face up
all believes and my worries
I will never give up

My heart beat is stronger
and I see in your eyes
I never should worry
You tell my no lies
