Fix these eyes, maybe it's time but where is the good in goodbye
e
And where is the fair in farewell
Stuck here in my own special hell
I'm not accustomed to this absence
Asleep in the sadness, I know
What you think
Just wanna say a few things and then I'll go
Away
Or maybe I could stay

I'm the same
It's you whose changed
But I'd still take you as you are anyway
I know you felt it too
Please just say it whilst you still do

And I tried, oh I tried
To keep from this falling but There's no hope, I still find myself lost

I'm the same
It's you whose changed
But I'd still take you as you are anyway
I know you felt it too
Please just say it whilst you still do
I know you felt it too
Please just say it whilst you still do

Oh, you'll probably be the last one to phase me
You'll probably be the last one to phase me
You'll probably be the last one to phase me
You'll probably be the last one to phase me
Oh, you'll probably be the last one to phase me
You'll probably be the last one to chase me
You'll probably be the last one to phase me
Oh, you'll probably be the last one to phase me
