

All Hopped Up On Jingle Bells

Punchline

Well there's a party each and every year on Christmas Eve
Where the fun and cocktail shrimp don't seem to end
Clark and Ralpie taking turns on the TV screen
Laughing, singing, yelling with all of our friends

Well it's Christmas
Well it's Christmas
And everybody's gonna spread the holiday cheer
'Cause it's Christmas
It's the best time of the year

Let's steal fake reindeer and bring them to the party
And hopefully the cops don't show up this year
The fire's burning bright
And we're all covered in Christmas lights
And waiting for the big guy to appear

Well it's Christmas
Well it's Christmas
And everybody's gonna spread the holiday cheer
'Cause it's Christmas
Now we won't stop until the big ball drops on New Years
Have a happy holiday

Well it's Christmas
Well it's Christmas
And everybody's gonna spread the holiday cheer
'Cause it's Christmas
Now we won't stop until the big ball drops on New Years
Have a happy holiday
Have a great holiday
Have a merrily happy holiday
