

Lights Out

Punchline

I've come a long, long way
From the way I was that day
And I wonder, was I ever right?
It's been a year today
Since you took my heart away
And I wonder, why didn't I fight?

Why didn't I fight
A long, long way (a long, long way)
Why didn't I fight
A long, long way
A long, long way

I'm leaving lights on
And leaving things behind
Is all I seem to do for myself.

She says I am gone
And he says party on.
I say carry on regardless of what they say.

Revenge and strife,
I can't live this life.
It's time for me to go.
Revenge and strife,
I can't live this life.
It's time for me to go away.

Leaving, I'm gone.
Closing the door behind
Is all I seem to do.

I've come a long, long way
From the way I was that day
And I wonder, and I wonder, and I wonder
It's been a year today
Since you took my heart away
Was it worth it? It is worth it. Was it worth it?

Time for me to go away
Yeah
