

my white collared shirt

Punchline

So what's the problem?
Why are you half-asleep?
Hey, girl, I'm talking to you
At least show me some teeth,
Like a smile
While trial and error fails,
And all of my friends are watching me bite my nails

All of my friends
Should get with all of your friends,
And we should have a good time tonight
I'm unwanted
And where I'll go, nobody knows

And I guess I should have worn my white collared shirt
And hit the floor with the skirts
Like there's a chance I'd be heard
With so much to put up,
If you wanna hook up,
You might get stood up
You should have shut up when you should have been Dancing in the dark,
It's so hard

I'm unwanted
You don't know how this feels
So misguided
That where I'll go, nobody knows
Where I'll go, nobody knows, Yeahhh
(Oh-oh, oh-oh) (oh-oh, oh-oh) (oh-oh, oh-oh) (Ahhh)

I hope you see through
It's time for me and you

I'm unwanted
You don't know how this feels
So misguided
That where I'll go, nobody knows
Where I'll go, nobody knows, Yeahhh
I'm unwanted
You don't know how this feels (feels)
So misguided
That where I'll go, nobody knows

[Repeated]
Where I'll go, nobody knows (Yeahhh)
(All of my friends, should get with all of your friends)
